

PIVOT

Author's Name:

Organization:

Brief description of the challenge (2-4 sentences):

Skill this challenge teaches and develops:

Skills and knowledge required to complete the lab:

Skill Level: Beginner Intermediate Advanced

Time required to complete instruction:

Time required to complete lab:

Type of hands-on Lab/Challenge:

Step-by-Step Lab Capture the Flag Solve the Puzzle Other. Please describe below:

Scoring mechanism:

No scoring (lab only) Shortest time wins Point-based system Other. Please describe below:

Participants:

Designed for Individual

Designed for Teams

Ideal team size:

Number per team:

Maximum number of teams:

Maximum number of people:

Other / Comments:

How Learning Happens: Instruction Method (select one)

Video Article / Presentation None – the challenge explains itself Other. Please describe below:

Assets provided in this Lab /Challenge:

Please list all, such as pcap files, VM images, evidence files, etc.

Infrastructure Requirements needed to run the Lab/Challenge:

Please list all, including required devices such as PCs, tablets, local networking configuration, Internet connectivity, bypass of firewall or proxy restrictions, etc.

Assets needed in advance for the Lab/Challenge:

Please list all, such as virtual machines, operating system installs, application installations, etc.

The Pitch:

Please tells us what makes the Lab / Challenge fun, interesting, and targets the development of practical, real-world information security skills? Use whatever space you need.

Off the Board:

If your challenge doesn't quite fit the template questions, but you think it helps accomplish Pivot's goals - just tell us the what/why/how of your creative approach.
